AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Charley Ellis, the sweet-voiced German comedian, will be the attraction at the Academy of Music this evening. He is a great favorite with a large majority of our theater-goers, whom he charmed long ago by his graceful manners, with his sweet songs and devotion to little ones. His "Count Coppel" has been entirely re-written since he was last seen here and greatly improved. He has added to his already large collection of pretty songs and will repeat by request his famous success, "A Bottom Hole Bouquet" and "Santa Claus." Ellis will be distributed to the children and luncheoners to the ladies, as is his custom.

BOY'S TEMPERANCE TOWN.

The same great cast which appeared in New York and Boston will present "A Temperance Town" at the Academy of Music tomorrow evening. The scenery and properties are all carried by the company and the same care that distinguished the production in other cities will be a feature of the engagement here. The cast includes George Richards, Eugene Canfield, Will H. Currie, R. J. Dillon, Joseph Frankan, Frank Russell, George Ober, E. F. Nagle, Miss Caroline Miskel, a most charming soprano and a lady possessing rare personal beauty, together with the Misses Lela Tabbutt, Dallas Taylor, Laura Ayers and Marie Unart, all well known and capable players.

CHARLES A. GARDNER.

Charles A. Gardner, the inimitable German dialect comedian and sweet singer, so familiar to everybody as a star of the first magnitude in the dramatic world, comes to our city with a rare treat for our amusement-lovers. He will appear on Saturday evening at the Academy of Music in a new comedy drama entitled "The Prize Winner," written by Dr. E. A. Wood and James R. Garney, of Pittsburgh.

The Women's Guild, of St. Luke's church, will give a dinner and tea at their rooms, 225 Washington avenue, Thursday next. Dinner from 10 to 12. Tea from 6 to 8. Dinner 50 cents; tea 25 cents. All members of the guild are requested to meet at the Guild room at 10 o'clock to assist in serving the dinner.

COURT HOUSE NOTES.

In an order filed with Prothonotary Pryor yesterday, Judge John A. Sitter, of Wyoming county, refused a new trial in the judgment of Silas Hareley against Charles Millard and John Hall. The case was tried three times in this county and was passed on by the supreme court once. A rule to show cause why a new trial should not be granted was allowed by the court yesterday in the case of N. A. Hubert against W. A. Beck. The case was tried last Friday and a verdict returned in favor of Mr. Beck.

Court yesterday refused to grant a rule to show cause why the verdict should not be set aside in the case of Michael Goffrey and others against the Moosic Mountain and Carbondale Railroad company. It is a trespass case and the last verdict was directed by the trial judge for the defendant.

Attorney W. S. Diehl was yesterday appointed auditor in the case of Miller against Duda.

The hearing in the habeas corpus proceedings instituted by Mrs. Catherine Broome was yesterday continued until Saturday on account of the absence of important witnesses.

The report of viewers on South Abington township road was confirmed finally by the court yesterday and the width of the road fixed at fifty feet.

Happenings of a Day That Will Interest Hyde Park Readers.

VERY SUCCESSFUL LANTERN SOCIAL.

A Pleasant Event at the Plymouth Congregational Church—Enjoyable Entertainment at the Jackson Street Baptist Church—Collection to Be Taken for the Late Rev. D. W. Thomas' Family—Short News Notes

[The West Side office of the SCRANTON TRIBUNE is located at 125 South Main avenue, where subscriptions, advertisements and communications will receive prompt attention.]

A lantern social was held last evening in the Plymouth Congregational church. The room was beautifully decorated with bunting and Japanese lanterns while the members of classes 22 and 23, who had the entertainment in charge, were small lanterns in their button holes. The auditorium was packed and many people had to stand. Will Johns, the chairman announced as the first number, a piano duet by Miss Amy Howell and Lillian Reynolds which was well played. Miss Josie Richards of the east side sang a solo in good style and was liberally applauded. A violin solo was rendered by Prof. Ross. The Brownies gave an excellent exhibition with Indian clubs, after which Prof. Weston, their instructor, gave an exhibition with the clubs. Miss Cora Griffin gave an excellent recitation. A violin solo was given by Miss Gusie Long. The closing number was a selection by a quartette. A social was then held and was thoroughly enjoyed by all. During the social the Octa-Chord Glee club sang several selections.

An Unique Social.

Misses Amy Anthony and Sarah A. Jones gave a very unique entertainment last evening in the Jackson Street Baptist church with the assistance of the young people. The programme opened with a solo by E. R. Griffiths, after which a recitation was given by Miss Alice Jones. A vocal duet was rendered by William Axen and John Lloyd. Miss Nettie Lewis gave a recitation and a selection was rendered by William B. Owens and party. Miss Mattie Thomas recited and Miss Martha Nichols rendered a solo entitled "Last Hymn." A feature of the occasion was a drill by sixteen young girls. These who participated were Misses Carrie Anthony, Edith Baddeley, Martha Nichols, Annie Williams, Bertha Widdick, Mattie Thomas, Sadie Thomas, Lizzie Meredith, Norma Meredith, Lizzie Morgan, Mary Davies, Barbara Davies, Cora Lewis, Nettie Lewis, Sarah Davies, Cora Reese.

A Benefit Collection.

A collection for the benefit of the family of the late Rev. D. W. Thomas, formerly pastor of the Jackson Street Baptist church, who died at Denver, Col., on Jan. 7, will be taken to the above church next Sunday morning and evening. Mr. Thomas, previous to his death, suffered from a continued illness for many years, whereby he was unable to follow his vocation. Persons desiring to contribute can leave their subscriptions with P. Nichols, William Bowens, Thomas J. Rice, Mrs. Pritchard, Mrs. David C. Williams or Mrs. Meyers.

Interesting News Notes.

Mrs. Emil Stroh, of Binghamton, is visiting friends on this side.

The Cymrodorion society held a meeting last evening in the West Side bank rooms.

Miss Costness, of Bald Mount, is visiting friends here.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Price, of North Garfield avenue, died Tuesday evening. The funeral will take place this afternoon. Interment at Washburn Street cemetery.

Daniel Bidall, of Wilkes-Barre, is visiting relatives on South Main avenue.

J. P. Acker, of South Main avenue, will leave for Syracuse, N. Y., today.

Windsor Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Thomas, of South Main avenue, is ill.

WAR OF DEACLES GOES MERRILY.

The Second Act Enacted in Alderman Fuller's Office.

The second act in the domestic drama in which Arthur and Joseph Deacle, of Providence, are engaged to star in, was enacted in Alderman Fuller's court yesterday afternoon.

A week ago yesterday while Arthur Deacle was attempting to hold possession of a house in evidence, which is in dispute between the brothers and sister Joseph Everson, a tenant whom Joseph Deacle was trying to place in the house, the allegation was that Everson drew a revolver and threatened to blow Arthur Deacle's heart out.

Twenty or thirty witnesses were sworn but their stories conflicted so that it would have taken a Philadelphia lawyer to have unravelled the snare. The alderman reserved his decision.

REPORT OF THE POLICE WORK.

The Month of December Yielded Fines Amounting to $382.

The monthly report of Chief of Police Simpson for the month of December shows that the total number of arrests was 138. Of that number forty-one were for drunkenness, thirty-six for drunk and disorderly, thirty-two for fighting and twenty-nine for minor offenses.

Twenty-nine cases were committed to the county jail; thirty-six were discharged at the hearing, four were bound over to court. Of the number committed to the county jail twenty-four were males and five females. The fines collected amounted to $382. During the past nine months the amount of fines collected was $3,323.35, or nearly enough to pay the expenses of the department for the same number of months.

Happenings of a Day That Will Interest Many Tribune Readers.

SILK MILL TO WORK FULL TIME

George Singleton, of Dover, N. J., speaks about the Trade-General District and Shrinkage in Values. Gustave Teske Assaulted by Highwaymen—Funeral of Harry Dalton. Shorter Paragraphs of Interest.

The Meadow Brook silk mill, George Singleton, of Dover, N. J., lessee, which has been working short time of late, is being put in readiness for an operation to its full capacity. Workmen are putting in overtime making the needed repairs, and when these are completed the mill will work in all its floors.

During the past few months the mill has been working very poorly and like the other factories in the vicinity, there were several weeks of idleness.

At present there are 120 hands employed and next month the payroll will show 250 persons drawing wages.

In conversation yesterday, Mr. Singleton said: "We are getting ready to operate every department. As to the prospects for the year, I think they are bright for steady employment. I do not mean by that, that the year will be as good for manufacturers as past years have been. This is impossible for the reason that there is a fearful depreciation in values, the shrinkage being about $1.75 cents a pound. Silk is a luxury, however, and there is a continual demand for it. Dealers are very conservative. Their orders are very carefully placed. When they send for so many pounds of silk they want that amount and do not care to have even an additional ounce tacked on. These conditions are due to the distrust engendered by the present political status of affairs."

Case of Highway Robbery.

Gustave Teske is an inoffensive citizen who resides in the Fourth district of the Nineteenth ward. He has but lately arrived from Germany and is employed in the mines of Canfield & Co. On Saturday night, according to his story, he was treated to an experience that he is not likely to forget in a hurry, and one that will not make him a lover of American institutions. He had received his pay and after settling some store accounts started for home. When he reached Stafford avenue it was quite dark, and he was assailed by four men. They knocked him down, bound and gagged him and then rifled his pockets. He had but $12 in his clothes but his assailants took every cent of it.

Funeral of Harry Dalton.

The funeral of Harry Dalton took place yesterday afternoon and was very largely attended, all his neighbors turning out en masse to do him honor. Services were held in the Cedar Avenue Methodist Episcopal church. Rev. Mr. Santee officiating. The flower bearers were John Moffatt and Charles Simeon. The pall bearers were James Dyer, Michael Cooke, Frank Kleinbrodt and James Lavelle. Interment was made in Forest Hill.

Shorter Paragraphs.

A letter recently received from Robert S. Low, dated Halifax, N. S., informed friends that the young man had been severely injured by falling over a reservoir that his father was constructing. Brides having broken several ribs his shoulder was dislocated.

Patrick Moore, motorman and Philip Fog, conductor, have both been assigned steady day runs on the South Side line. The promotions were made because of an extra car to Greenwood.

Rev. Richard Aust, of the Polish Catholic church, celebrated the month's mid-mass for the welfare of the late Patrick Gallagher yesterday morning. It was very largely attended.

REMOVALS AT THE COUNTY JAIL.

Humphrey Bradley and Louis Gscheidl removed by Sheriff Fahey.

Sheriff John J. Fahey yesterday removed Humphrey Bradley and Louis Gscheidl from their positions as keepers at the county jail. Mr. Fahey was dissatisfied with the conduct of the keepers on Monday when Orlando Edwards escaped from the jail.

He appointed in their places George C. Griswold, who has been one of his deputies for several months, and John Gaffney. The appointments were confirmed by the court and went into effect at once.

Mr. Griswold went on duty at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and Mr. Gaffney will begin this morning. Mr. Griswold was a keeper before he became deputy sheriff.

The men removed have been employed at the jail for several years.

TO HONOR ROBERT BURNS' BIRTH.

Annual Banquet of the Scranton Caledonian Club at the Wyoming.

The annual banquet of the Scranton Caledonian club which will be held at the Wyoming this evening promises to be an unusually enjoyable affair.

The one hundred and thirty-fifth anniversary of the birth of Scotland's bard, Robert Burns, will be celebrated in oratory and song by well known persons. Among those who will speak are Judge H. M. Edwards, Mayor W. L. Connel, Captain B. E. Morris, Colonel Frank J. Fitzmaurice, Dr. James McLeod, William T. Smith, Senator M. E. McDonald, Professor George Phillips and others.

The music for the occasion will be rendered by the Caledonian Glee party under the leadership of Professor J. H. McMillan. Supper will be served at 9 o'clock.

Important to Business Men.

THE TRIBUNE will soon publish a carefully compiled and classified list of the leading wholesale, banking, manufacturing and professional interests of Scranton and vicinity. The edition will be bound in book form, beautifully illustrated with photographic views of our public buildings, business blocks, streets, etc. The circulation is on a plan that cannot fail of good results to those concerned as well as the city at large. Representatives of THE TRIBUNE will call upon those whose names are desired in this edition and explain its nature more fully. We trust our LIVE BUSINESS MEN will give it their hearty support.

Those desiring views of their residences in this edition will please leave notice at the office.

CROWDS AFTER BOOKS

Surprise at the Excellent Quality of the Standard Works Furnished.

REMARKABLE DEMAND FOR THEM

All Handsomely Bound and Well Printed on Superior Paper in Large Clear Type, with Illuminated Covers, Resembling the Works Contained in the Albright Library—List of the Titles of Books Contained in the Oxford Series.

Crowds of people anxious to see the books of the Oxford, Rugby and Columbia series yesterday filled the TRIBUNE office, and their curiosity was soon turned to pleasure, for they had not expected to behold such an excellent quality of standard works, so handsomely bound, such fine paper and in such clear and large type.

It should be borne in mind that all the books of all the series, which have illuminated covers, are bound in cloth. As a consequence the demand for the books exceeded all expectations. The general remark of surprise was that they resembled almost exactly the fine works in the Scranton library. They had not looked for such excellence.

All these books in the different series have arrived, and as there is a raid on some special authors it will pay those desiring first choice to cut coupons and send in their cash without delay.
